October 7th — Celebrate Paly's Founding: Historic Reenactment Dedications & Student Performances

FUN &
FREE

The Palo Alto Historical Association will conduct a historical reenactment of the march that took place on the first day of school in 1918 when students, staff and the community members marched from the old Paly campus on Channing Street to the current Paly site. A dedication ceremony and celebration will follow in the new Performing Arts building on campus. More detailed information can be found at <https://paly.net/centennial> during the month of September.

More activities/information later in the year!

Questions? Contact Mary Ellen Bena, mbena@pausd.org or 650-867-1338.
