

Youth Community Service (YCS) at Palo Alto High School Provides the Following Programs and Services for Paly Students.

 Earn Service Hours with YCS **

The coming year will mean even greater need for the kind of connection, agency and wellbeing that meaningful service experiences can provide our students. Join Us! All YCS programs will be adapted to COVID-19 health regulations.

- Presidential Service Award and Paly Service Day 2021 are open to all Paly students:
- YCS is a certifying agency for the Presidential Volunteer Service Award! Contact us to get started!
- YCS staff guide students in planning Paly Service Day every year.
YCS Community Service Days (open to the Palo Alto and surrounding communities, with leadership opportunities for students):
- Engage in service with people from across the community in our Fall and Spring Service Events; Make a Difference Day (October) and Martin Luther King, Jr Day of Service (January)
Paly YCS-Interact Club (open to all Paly students):
- Weekly service projects supported by Ashley Yee-Mazawa, YCS Program Director and Paly teacher sponsor Joshua Knowles-Hinrichs
- Community service-learning opportunities provided throughout the year with a Celebration of Service event at the end of the school year!

Youth Community Service is a local non-profit organization that provides social-emotional service-learning resources in the Palo Alto District. To learn more about YCS events and opportunities for community service, visit www.youthcommunityservice.org, or follow us on Facebook and Instagram (@YCS_servingyouth).

We invite financial & volunteer support by Paly families for YCS programs at Paly.

Your tax-exempt contribution can support YCS expenses so more students can find balance and purpose through service.

As a parent, I would like to be a YCS site volunteer for Paly: Yes No
